Artificial Intelligence, Public Policies and Human Rights
A recommended bibliography

DD-AI-05

Bibliography curated by instructors of the "Artificial Intelligence and human rights in public policies: Beyond privacy" course, taught in 2022 by Derechos Digitales and the Center for Technology and Society Studies (Centro de Estudios en Tecnología y Sociedad – CETyS) of Universidad de San Andrés. The materials are organized from the most basic concepts to specific issues regarding the public sector and the implementation of Artificial Intelligence public policies.
